

COMMUNITY STANDARDS

1. Introduction

Fatherland aims to tell the African story. In doing this, we have built a community that facilitates social and economic development and promote afro-centric culture and values worldwide. It's a service to over 1.5 million people to retrace their African root and enjoy the uniqueness of the African culture.

Fatherland recognises how important it is for our community to be a place where people feel empowered to express themselves and we take our role seriously in keeping abuse off the service. Thus, we have formulated a guiding standard to regulate our activities and stipulate acceptable and unacceptable conducts in Fatherland Community.

These standards are based on feedback from people and the advice of experts in fields such as technology, public safety and human rights. To ensure that everyone is valued, we take great care to create standards that include different views and beliefs, especially from people and communities that might otherwise be overlooked or marginalised.

2. Scope

Our community standard is applicable to all members of Fatherland Community all around the world and to all types of content.

3. Membership Privilege

As a member of Fatherland community, you gain automatic access to all fatherland products, including the community hubs, any where in the world, subject to your subscription package.

4. Contents that do not protect Afrocentric values

Community members are prohibited from posting contents which do not promote afro-centric culture and values.

5. Abusive comments

We make a distinction between lively criticism of an argument, belief or opinion and attacks on individuals. Comments that are abusive to other community members will not be tolerated.

6. Hate Speech and discriminatory languages.

We will not tolerate sexist, racist, homophobic, and other discriminatory language or views. Comments or actions which incite violence or appear threatening or harassing will be deleted and those community members banned.

7. Sign up Requirement

We require all Community Members to sign up with their real names and we reserve the right to delete comments made with unknown names. We equally reserve the right to denounce any membership if we discover that at the point of registration, such Community Member used a name other than their real name.

8. Privacy

Respect the privacy of other Community Members. Don't include the personal data of any Community Member in a post or comment without authorisation. Authorisation must be received from the Community Member whose name is to be posted. Personal data in this context refers to personal addresses, email addresses, phone numbers or full names of a Community Member.

9. Adherence to the Standards

You are responsible for adhering to these guidelines and Standard. If discussion or actions do not align, our disciplinary team will intervene. If necessary, we will lock accounts or denounce membership of community members who continuously breach our community standards.
